Malta

Requirements

Possess global health insurance coverage

Provide a police report and be of good character

Provide a medical certificate

Main applicant must be 18 years old or older

Hold a resident permit from Malta for at least 1 year

Key Benefits

Doesn't require the applicant to visit Malta after naturalisation

Malta doesn't levy tax on foreign income unless it is remitted; tax residents can also apply for a flat tax rate of 15% on worldwide income.

Malta provides visa-free access to 182 destinations including Australia, Canada, UAE, the US and freedom of movement in the EU.

Applicants can include parents 55 years old or older and children up to 26 years of age.

Stage 1 (Month 1)

Gather the necessary documents and submit an application for an E-Residency card, which takes 3-4 weeks to receive. Applicants must hold an E-Residency card for 12 months in order to apply for citizenship.

Stage 2 (Month 6)

Application for citizenship is sent, including application fees. Notification of the completeness of application is communicated within seven days. Due diligence is performed on the applicant and an approval in principle is given within 4-5 months. You are required to complete the investment.

Stage 3 (Month 13)

You may take the Oath after having held E-Residency for 12 months. You will then receive a Certificate of Naturalisation, with which you can apply for the passport.
